AN ACT

To amend Public, Numbered 507, Seventy-seventh Congress, second session, an Act to further expedite the prosecution of the war, approved March 27, 1942, known as the Second War Powers Act, 1942.

December 20, 1944
[H. R. 4993]
[Public Law 509]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That title XV, section 1501, of the Second War Powers Act, 1942, approved March 27, 1942, is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 1501. Titles I to VII, inclusive, and titles IX, XI, and XIV of this Act, and the amendments to existing law made by any such title, shall remain in force only until December 31, 1945, or until such earlier time as the two Houses of Congress by concurrent resolution, or the President, may designate, and after such amendments cease to be in force any provision of law amended thereby shall be in full force and effect as though this Act had not been enacted; but no court proceeding brought under any such title shall abate by reason of the termination hereunder of such title."

Title III of the Second War Powers Act, 1942, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(9) The district courts of the United States are hereby given exclusive jurisdiction to enjoin or set aside, in whole or in part, any order suspending any priority or allocation, or denying a stay of any such suspension, that may have been issued by any person, officer, or agency, acting or purporting to act hereunder, or under any other law or authority.

"Any action to enjoin or set aside any such order shall be brought within five days after the service thereof.

"No suspension order shall take effect within five days after it has been served, or, if an application for a stay is made to the issuing authority within such five-day period, until the expiration of five days after service of an order denying the stay.

"The venue of any such suit shall be in the district court of the United States for the district in which the petitioner has his principal place of business; and the respondent shall be subject to the jurisdiction of such court after ten days before the return day of the writ, either when (1) process shall have been served on any district manager or other agent of the respondent of similar or superior status; or (2) notice by registered mail shall have been given to respondent, or to the office of the Attorney General of the United States."

SEC. 2. Not to exceed 5 per centum of the funds herein authorized shall also be available for the purpose of making studies, investigations, estimates, plans and specifications, preliminary and final, of the projects herein authorized in advance of undertaking projects and the cost thereof shall be charged to the projects involved.

SEC. 3. The Administrator is authorized to acquire, prior to the approval of title by the Attorney General if necessary (without regard to secs. 1136, as amended, and 3709 of the Revised Statutes), improved or unimproved lands or interests in lands by purchase, donation, exchange, or condemnation for any project herein authorized. Upon completion of projects on land acquired under this section the Administrator shall transfer custody thereof to the Secretary of the Interior, who shall forthwith transfer all rights and title of the United States therein to the government of the Virgin Islands or the municipality of Saint Thomas and Saint John, or the municipality of Saint Croix, except those projects constructed for Federal agencies. Projects authorized by this Act may be constructed without regard to the provisions of sections 355, as amended, and 1136, as amended, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 4. The Administrator is further authorized to receive and accept funds, materials, supplies, and equipment from the government of the Virgin Islands, the municipalities of Saint Thomas and Saint John, and Saint Croix, and other sources, for use in connection with authorized projects or parts thereof. Any funds so received shall be deposited in a special fund in the Treasury of the United States and shall be expended or utilized as determined by the Federal Works Administrator.

SEC. 5. All construction with respect to projects shall be by contract: Provided, however, That repairs or improvements to existing structures or facilities and incidental work in connection with new structures or facilities may be accomplished by the employment of persons without regard to the civil-service and classification laws. The rates of pay, hours of work, and terms of employment for persons engaged on projects shall be fixed by the Administrator.

SEC. 6. The Administrator is authorized to procure (without regard to the authority of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, to undertake the performance of such procurement, as regards procurement from sources within Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands), and to warehouse and distribute property, facilities, structures, improvements, machinery, equipment, stores, and supplies from the funds appropriated pursuant to this Act. The Administrator is further authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the establishment of special funds in the nature of revolving funds for use, during the availability of funds herein authorized, in the purchase, repair, distribution, or rental of materials, supplies, equipment, and tools.

SEC. 7. The provisions of section 3709 of the Revised Statutes shall not apply to any purchase made or service procured in connection with the funds appropriated pursuant to this Act when the aggregate amount involved is less than $500.

SEC. 8. The provisions of the Act of February 15, 1934 (48 Stat. 351), as amended, relating to disability or death compensation and benefits shall apply to persons (except administrative employees qualifying as civil employees of the United States) receiving compensation from funds appropriated pursuant to this Act for services rendered as employees of the United States: Provided, That this section shall not apply in any case coming within the purview of the workmen's compensation laws of the Virgin Islands, or in any case in which the claimant has received or is entitled to receive similar benefits for injury or death.

SEC. 9. The Administrator is authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust, determine, and pay from the funds appropriated pursuant to this Act any claim on account of injury to persons, or any claim for damage to or loss of privately owned property, caused by the negligence of any employee of the United States paid from such funds while acting within the scope of his employment. No claim shall be considered hereunder which is in excess of $500 or which is not presented in writing within one year from the date of accrual thereof. Acceptance by a claimant of the amount allowed on account of his claim shall be deemed to be in full settlement thereof and the action upon such claim so accepted by the claimant shall be conclusive.

SEC. 10. The Administrator is authorized to make such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 11. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated the sum of $10,028,420, $2,028,420 to be available in 1945, and $2,000,000 in each of the following four years, each yearly sum to remain available until expended, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, administrative and otherwise, including the employment of engineers, architects, and consultants without regard to section 3709 of the Revised Statutes, and the civil-service and classification laws; personal services and rental in the District of Columbia and elsewhere; supplies and equipment; travel expenses, including transfer of household goods and effects as provided by the Act of October 10, 1940 (5 U. S. C. 73c-1), and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, transportation to the Virgin Islands and return of officers, employees, and other persons engaged in carrying out the functions prescribed in this Act; purchase, repair, operations, and maintenance of motor-propelled passenger-carrying vehicles; and such other expenses as may be necessary for the accomplishment of the objectives of this Act. All payments from funds made available pursuant to this Act shall be made through the Division of Disbursements of the Treasury Department, upon vouchers certified by the Administrator or employees designated by him for such purpose.

Approved December 20, 1944.
